TV gears up for a week of bowl games

By Bill Jauss

Coach Mike White of Illinois summed it up in 12 words last month, after the Illini had earned a bid to the Peach Bowl by beating Northwestern in the final game of the regular season.

"This bowl business," said White, "is what college football is all about these days."

Business is right. Illinois will receive some $500,000 for playing the Peach Bowl against Army in Atlanta on New Year's Eve. And the Peach is a cheapie among bowls.

The following figures explain why bowls games have become economic necessities to schools playing big time football. The figures also indicate the megabucks at stake when one network competes head-to-head against another for ratings. That happens on New Year's Day when NBC's Fiesta Bowl goes up against CBS' Cotton Bowl, and NBC's Orange Bowl airs at the same time as ABC's Sugar Bowl.

- Seventeen sanctioned post-season bowl games will pay out more than $50 million among the schools that go bowling this holiday season.
- The five games played on New Year's Day—Fiesta, Cotton, Rose, Orange, and Sugar—will pay more than $25.5 million to the 10 participating teams.
- The Rose Bowl, paying almost three times more than any other bowl, will distribute almost $6 million apiece to Iowa and to UCLA.

USC's Timmie Ware celebrates a touchdown in the Rose Bowl victory over Ohio State last New Year's Day.

Brent Musburger will call the plays when Auburn meets Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl Wednesday on CBS-Ch. 2.

Schools from conferences such as the Big 10 must divide bowl money among conference members. Independents don't have to divide the money. Penn State, for example, can keep the more than $2 million it will receive for trying to win the National championship against Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl.

Bowl trips help college football programs other than financially. There is TV exposure, recruiting benefits and the extra practice time that is not available to a rival that stays home over the holidays. But the money, as White indicated, makes the whole business work.

Network and bowl officials tend to agree that the real winner this New Year's Day should be NBC whose late-afternoon telecast of the Rose Bowl is the only football game on TV in that time slot.

NBC also appears to have more attractive matchups when it clashes against rival networks before and after the Rose Bowl. In the early afternoon showdown, NBC pits Michigan-Nebraska in the Fiesta against CBS' Auburn-Texas A&M in the Cotton. In prime time, it will be NBC's Orange Bowl package of Penn State-Oklahoma vs. ABC's Miami [Fla.]-Tennessee matchup in the Sugar Bowl.

"We go into the Cotton Bowl as a definite underdog," says Mark Carlson of CBS Sports. "We have [Auburn's] Bo Jackson, the Heisman Trophy winner, but Michigan-Nebraska is a headliner game and has those big markets in the Big 10 area."

"We have an uphill struggle," says Donn Bernstein of ABC Sports. "Hopefully, we'll get flippers [viewers who switch between the Orange and Sugar]."

Here is a breakdown of the 10 bowls being played Monday through Wednesday. Kickoff times are Chicago time and 1985 payoff figures are used. This year's take should be approximately 10 percent higher.

Dick Enberg [left] and Merlin Olsen will describe the action when Iowa meets UCLA in the Rose Bowl Wednesday on NBC-Ch. 5.

Gator Bowl, Jacksonville, Fla. Florida State vs. Oklahoma State. 7 p.m. Monday on ABC-Ch. 7. Announcers: Al Michaels, Lee Grosscup, Al Trautwig. Payoff per team: $831,020.

Gator folks were hoping to get Auburn or a Big 10 team. Nevertheless, this telecast has one built-in strength. The nation is conditioned to watching Monday Night Football on ABC, and there is no pro game this Monday.

Freedom Bowl, Anaheim, Calif. Washington vs. Colorado. 8:30 p.m. Monday on WFLD-Ch. 32. [Tape delay after the Chicago Bulls game.] Announcers: Barry Tompkins, Lou Holtz. Payoff per team: $500,000.

What's Notre Dame's new coach doing as color broadcaster? Holtz contracted to do this telecast before he switched from Minnesota to the Irish. Holtz, a Pied Piper type, might try to use the mike to recruit a few youths capable of getting the Irish back into the bowl business.

Peach Bowl, Atlanta. Illinois vs. Army. 1:30 p.m Tuesday on CBS-Ch. 2. Announcers: Gary Bender, Steve Davis, Pat O'Brien. Payoff per team: $473,840.

The network and the Peach folks like this match. Illini fans will flock to Atlanta. The seven state Big 10 area contains 25 percent of the nation's TV sets. The early kickoff won't interfere with fans' New Year's Eve parties. Jack Trudeau and David Williams provide the Illini an exciting pass-and-catch combination.

Bluebonnet Bowl, Houston. Air Force vs. Texas. 1:30 p.m. Tuesday on WLFD-Ch. 32. Announcers Tom Hammond, Gifford Nielsen. Payoff per team: $445,000.

A tough one to sell outside the Lone Star

state. Air Force hasn't any "old grads" to follow its team. Longhorn fans don't stampede to bowls, other than the Cotton. And the Bluebonnet goes head-to-head against an intriguing All-American Bowl.

All-American Bowl, Birmingham, Ala. Michigan State vs. Georgia Tech. 7 p.m. Tuesday on WFBN-Ch. 66 and WTBS on cable. Announcers: Paul Hornung, Tim Foley, Bob Neal. Payoff per team: $700,000.

The Spartans' Lorenzo White makes this one a hot ticket. "Home team" Tech comes from Herschel Walker country. White broke Herschel's sophomore rushing record. Birmingham is the home of Auburn's Bo Jackson. Lorenzo outrushed Bo.

Cotton Bowl, Dallas. Auburn vs. Texas A&M. 12:30 p.m. Wednesday on CBS-Ch. 2. Announcers: Brent Musberger, Ara Parseghian, Jim Nantz. Payoff per team: $1,988,181.

Face it: Despite the attraction of Bo Jackson, the Cotton Bowl wanted a Big 10 team. Iowa would have gone Cotton if the Hawkeyes had not won the Rose bid. Ohio State would be in Dallas if the Buckeyes had beaten Michigan. However, Michigan athletic director Don Canham followed the "bird in the hand" philosophy and chose the Fiesta, which wanted Michigan, win or lose its OSU game.

Canham's decision caused some grumbling within the Big 10, because the Fiesta payoff is about $1 million less than the Cotton. That comes to about $100,000 per school when divided among conference members.

Fiesta Bowl, Tempe, Ariz. Michigan vs. Nebraska. 12:30 p.m. Wednesday on NBC-Ch. 5. Announcers: Charles Jones, Sam Rutigliano, Gary Gerould. Payoff per school: $860,000.

The Cotton Bowl has been beating the Fiesta in the ratings since the Fiesta ceased kicking off 30 minutes earlier. But NBC is confident that its Fiesta combination of these two traditional football powers will mean more in the ratings war than Heisman winner Bo Jackson playing in the Cotton Bowl.

True, Heisman winner Doug Flutie of Boston College enabled the Cotton Bowl to beat the Fiesta in the ratings last year. But Flutie had an uncommon charisma.

Also, the Fiesta has a pretty well known Bo itself, Wolverine Coach Schembechler. The director will keep a camera on Michigan's Bo, hoping to catch him in a temper tantrum on the sideline.

Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif. Iowa vs. UCLA. About 3:45 p.m. Wednesday [after the Fiesta Bowl] on NBC-Ch. 5. Announcers: Dick Enberg, Merlin Olsen. Payoff per team: $5,813,296.

Imagine a champion, in any sport, so powerful that nobody even tries to challange him or her. That's the Rose, the Granddaddy of Bowl Games.

The Rose Bowl usually draws the highest ratings. It pays out by far the most money. And it goes on unopposed in the late afternoon, early evening time slot.

A Chicagoland angle to this game: Wheaton's Chuck Long, who bypassed last year's pro draft in hopes of quarterbacking the Hawkeyes to the Rose Bowl, fulfills that wish.

Orange Bowl, Miami. Penn State vs. Oklahoma. 7 p.m. Wednesday on NBC-Ch. 5. Announcers: Don Criqui, Bob Trumpy, Bob Griese, Jim Cefelo. Payoff per team: $2,020,000.

Representatives from all three networks agree on this point: When you're going head-to-head on TV, no other factor is as important as having the National championship on the line in your game.

The Orange Bowl has this ideal situation again. If Coach Joe Paterno's Nittany Lions win, they will win the title as they did when they defeated Georgia 27-23 with the title on the line in the Sugar Bowl in 1983. That year, incidently, is the only one of the last four when the Sugar won its head-to-head battle against the Orange.

If Penn State loses to Oklahoma, however, there could be as many as four New Year's Day teams log-jammed at the top with 11-1 records: Oklahoma, Miami, Iowa and Penn State.

Sugar Bowl, New Orleans. Miami [Fla.] vs. Tennessee. 7 p.m. Wednesday on ABC-Ch. 7. Announcers: Keith Jackson, Frank Broyles, Tim Brant. Payoff per team: $2,100,000.

Bernstein's "Flipper" phenomenon would operate this way: If Oklahoma jumps ahead of Penn State, fans interested in seeing a National champion crowned may switch dials to this game.

Miami, led by quarterback Vinny Testaverde, is the only team to beat Oklahoma this season. Miami will he billed as Oklahoma's conquerer in pre Sugar hype. This will be done to make TV viewers aware that if Penn State loses the Orange Bowl and Miami wins the Sugar, than Miami can lay legitimate claim to the national title.

Of course, college football would have a true national champion, instead of one elected by writers and broadcasters or coaches, if the NCAA had a postseason tournament similar to its basketball playoffs.

Don't hold your breath, however, for an NCAA football tournament. Big conferences, tied up contractually to big bowls, would have too much to lose to give up the bowls for a playoff. Would the Big 10 or Pac 10, for example, give up a guaranteed $6 million per conference from the Rose Bowl to go into the playoffs?

Remember what Mike White said?

Why this could be the best week of the year to buy a new Buick.

8.5% GMAC Financing* on every new Skyhawk

Plus get great end-of-the-year deals on every new 1986 Buick in stock.

*Annual Percentage Rate. You must take actual retail delivery from dealer stock by Dec. 31, 1985. Dealer financial participation may affect consumer cost. See your participating dealer for qualification details.

No payments 'til February

Take delivery of your GMAC-financed Buick right now and make no payments until February 15th.

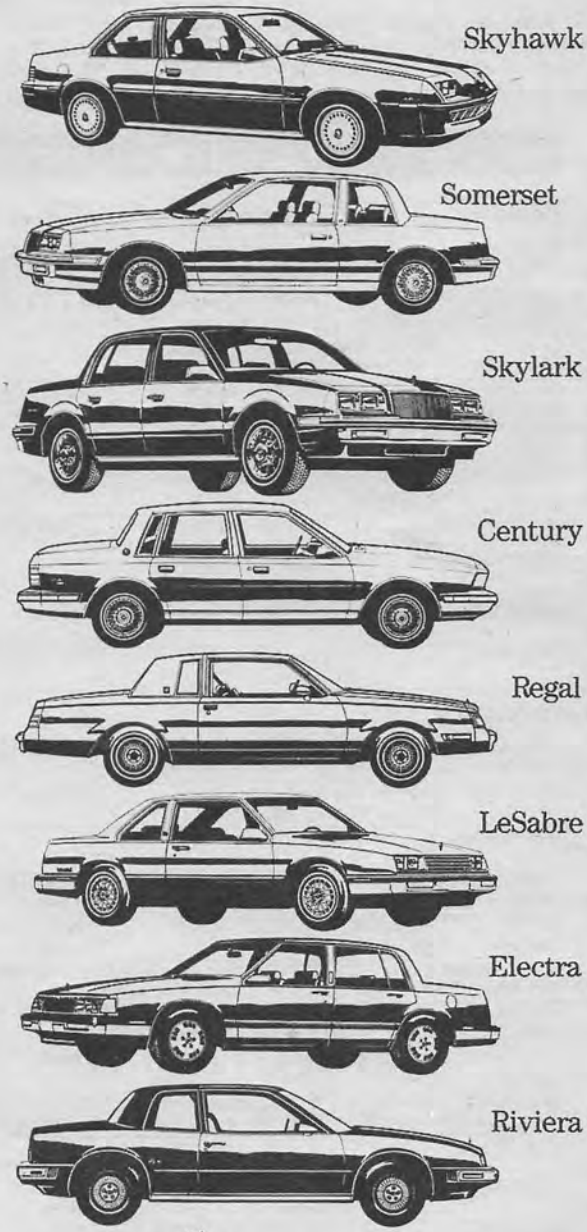
Federal Tax Benefit

If you use your car in business, you may still qualify for a generous Federal Tax Benefit. See your Tax Advisor for details.



Your Better Buick Dealers are cutting inventory by cutting prices on every new 1986 Buick in stock. That's why prices may never be lower, savings may never be greater than they are right now. But remember: your opportunity to save definitely ends Tuesday. This is the week to see your Better Buick Dealer and save!

Ends Tuesday, December 31st

You aren't alone anymore

It's that time of year again—THE HOLIDAYS.

The time of year when overwhelming feelings of emptiness, loneliness, or isolation from others may occur.

You may feel alone surrounded by family or friends.

You may find others telling you to "Cheer up."; "Get with it."; "Don't feel so sorry for yourself.".

You may be living with feelings of not being understood by others or not being able to understand these feelings yourself.

You may have even told yourself you can't go on being overwhelmed much longer.

At Charter Barclay Hospital, we take these feelings seriously.

We are able to respond quickly to the individual overcome with apathy, irritability, chronic fatigue, overwhelming sadness, recurring thoughts of suicide, or an increase in the use of alcohol or drugs.

Don't spend these Holidays without help.

If you or someone you know needs assistance, don't wait.

Call today.

EYEWEAR, No Longer a Necessity?

Eye surgery which takes place while the patient snoozes in an outpatient center, now offers the realistic hope of removing eyeglass dependency for many who are uncomfortable with contact lenses or who seek freedom from eyewear for personal or professional reasons.

These surgical techniques, first used in the U.S.S.R. and in Columbia, cause better focusing of light within the eye by reshaping the corneal window.

In the Soviet technique (Fyodorov), called keratotomy, half millimeter-deep incisions going from the pupil's edge toward the white portion allow a natural flattening effect on the central cornea to occur.

Refined in the U.S.S.R. since 1973 and in the United States since 1978, more than 100,000 keratotomies have been performed world-wide.

Several U.S. studies have reconfirmed its safety and high effectiveness, though some rare, serious complications have occurred.

Keratotomy corrects nearsightedness and astigmatism.

In the Columbian technique (Barraquer), the surgeon uses high-tech equipment to remove a quarter-millimeter-thick contact lens-shaped wafer from the front eye wall.

This procedure, which has a 25 year tract record, corrects farsightedness as well as nearsightedness beyond the range of keratotomy.

How to use this guide

Movies are listed alphabetically by title for these pay and cable channels: Cinemax [MAX], HBO, the Movie Channel [TMC] and Showtime [SHO]. Also listed in this selective guide: Movies, shown in prime-time [6 p.m. to midnight], Monday through Friday and from sign-on-to-sign-off Saturday and Sunday on Arts & Entertainment [A&E], Bravo [BRV], Disney [DISN], Lifetime [LIFE], Nashville [NASH], SPN, USA, WOR and WTBS. Times for specific channels follow at the end of each movie listing.

About time...

Any starting time before 5 a.m. is listed as part of the previous day. If a movie time says "Sun. 12:30 a.m.," that means early Monday morning, not early Sunday morning.

Star ratings, whenever possible, are based on Tribune reviews. Listings include the original rating given each film by the Motion Picture Association of America [MPAA]: 'G', 'PG,' 'PG-13,' 'R.' 'NR' [no rating] usually means the movie was made for television, was never submitted to the MPAA for a rating, or was made before 1968, the year the MPAA was established. Our guide also indicates warning lines, whenever possible, when a movie has a significant amount of nudity, violence, or strong language.

A note on Showtime

Showtime subscribers receiving their signal from the John Hancock Center via Teleprompter's microwave Multipoint Distribution System [MDS] receive the same prime-time programs as suburban subscribers who receive their Showtime signal on cable. However, 24-hour service is not available to those receiving the MDS signal.

A

Alphabet City ★ '84. Vincent Spano, Kate Vernon. [ORT: 85] A young hood with a conscience rebels when asked by the mob to torch the apartment building in which his family lives. 'R' Adult situations, language, violence. TMC: Tue. 7 p.m.; Fri. 10:30 p.m.
